"First let go of life --finally to take a step without feet...Only from the heart can you touch the sky".

Greetings,

Happy Holidays folks!! As 2009 comes to a close, it seems funny to think that the twenty first century's first decade is almost over.

Hey, let's march into 2010 with undaunted optimism, shall we? Let's embrace the simple reality that living here and now upon precious planet Earth—we are possessed with complete ability to love and be loved. Actively loving, that is what's going to help a world in crises. The more individuals express love and experience inner peace, the less they cling to fear! You may have noticed that our holiday discount code - is "Peace in 2010" - a nice thing to strive for. Every time you can enter a state of peace and feel it glowing within your core-joy is released into our world. And what's so funny about peace, love and understanding, right?

The big news is—"Guidance gifts" are now available. A perfect anytime gift you can offer to support a special person in your life. Guidance gifts are fifteen minute, one question gift cards, convenient for those who just need a check- in to receive renewed clarity and direction when facing life's never ending hurdles. As my friend Danny said to me recently; "Charley, what better gift to give someone than the gift of guidance." Thanks Danny, I definitely concur.

Quite frequently, I am asked about my beginnings in psychic work. People are curious what it's like to be psychic—but providing a sound byte explanation of my curious career can prove challenging. To me, every day is another opportunity to read for people; working with my guides to navigate the labyrinth of lives, loves and vocations.

On our career profile page we posted a recent radio interview conducted by Harriet Harris for Santa Fe's "Om Zone" program. Harriet pitched her well prepared questions one after another- in a successive flash- I did my best volleying rapid responses back to her. In radio world, zero "dead air" is strategy number one in aiming for an interesting show. We're pretty happy with the results, I think we somehow managed to explain in (nearly) plain terms what all this psychic stuff is and how it came to be that I guide souls for a living. If you are at all curious about my life in the psychic field, take a listen. Hope you enjoy "Psychic 101."

Last, but not least, we are happy to offer CharleyCastex.com fans a $10.00 Holiday discount on Fifty-five and Eighty minute sessions!!!

Enjoy yourselves and remember to take in the abundant beauty of life.

Grace Always,
Charley Castex
